

22 Miles

Paston Way

The 22 mile Paston Way passes through the beautiful Poppyland of north-east Norfolk, taking in medieval churches, pretty villages, rolling farmland, disused railways and beach walks.

To visit all 14 of the fine churches on the Paston way, the walk totals 29.5 miles. Each church has a different heritage and story to tell.

For more information see www.norfolk.gov.uk/pastonway