The War Memorial Park governing document is a Conveyance dated 11th July 1947 and the objectives of the charity are to administer and maintain the rounds as a public park.

The Park continues to be maintained by the Town Council for use by the townspeople of North Walsham. It has not been utilised to its full potential this year following COVID-19 but still managed to host the annual funday event.

The Park pavilion continues to be rented by Poppies Day Nursery for the daycare of under 4's.

The park is surveyed by 2x CCTV for security purposes and has an annual tree survey, in respect of both safety and tree preservation.
